

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Josh didn't have permission/permition/permician to go to the supermarket before school. He didn't want to have a discussion/discution/discuscian with his mum about why he needed to go there. Josh left his house early and, without any hesitassion/hesitation/hesitacian, Fluffy, the cat from the alley, approached him.

2. Underline the pronouns in the sentence below.

Fluffy and a few of his followers waited for Josh to leave school and demanded he buy them all another fish.

3. Why has a comma been used in the sentence below?

With that offer, Fluffy and the rest of the cats turned and ran down the street like a streak of mini tigers.

4. Which sentence uses the present perfect form?

Tick one.

The cats watched Josh march into the supermarket and appear five minutes later with a plastic bag in his hand.

Josh has bought a huge fish for the cats to share.

Josh pulled out the wrapped-up fish from the plastic bag.

They were like a school of piranhas, finishing off the fish in seconds.

5. Rewrite the sentence below using direct speech. Remember to punctuate your sentence correctly.

Josh said that he didn't have enough money to keep buying fish.
